On December 29, 2004, the following fax (page 1-9) was sent to Nguen, Tuan Duc in response to former correspondence on the subject titled above.

It was sent to fax number: (703) 872-9306.

Since I haven't heard anything from You, I assume it was sent to the wrong dept. fax number.

Dear Mr. Tuan D. Nguyen,

I am in receipt of your mail, dated 12/15/04. To the very best of our knowledge, we have not received "The Quayle Office Action" which according to your letter was mailed to us on 08/25/03.

Your statement that "no other communications from the applicant has been received" is contradicted by the enclosed copy of the latest mail we sent you, dated February 24, 2004, which includes a requested return receipt signed by USPTO (page 8 in this fax) together with a copy of the check we sent.

A hard copy of this fax can and will be sent upon request from you. The same holds true for all other correspondence between us, should you need copies thereof. Again, please note the correct spelling of our address. "Raverns grand" does not exist and has caused the Swedish Post Office confusion.

Very truly yours,

Bo Bengtsson
